

NOVEMBER

2013

The Arkansas Pastel Society stirred things up a little in November and had the monthly meeting in Hot Springs Village. Richard McKinley conducted a week long workshop for the APS in Hot Springs Village and graciously agreed to present a demonstration for the meeting. The workshop was a huge success, and the meeting on Tuesday night had 61 present. Richard is a great speaker and wonderful instructor. He also judged the National Juried Exhibit, which he had juried, and was present at the Friday night reception to present ribbons and awards to the winners.

We owe a huge debt to Richard for all the work he has done for us.
