

SEPTEMBER

ARKANSAS
Pastel Society

2012

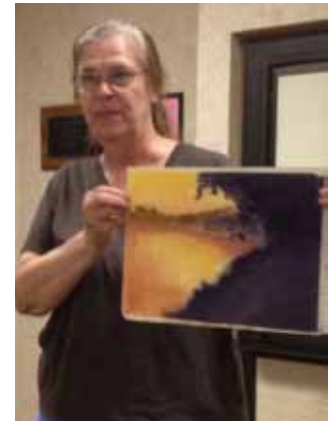

The September meeting was very casual and we got to visit with some members we had not seen in a while! It was great to catch up and get to know each other better.

Jo Magee had emailed members 3 photographs to use and create small paintings to share with the group. It was so wonderful to see how they were all so different! We discussed inspirations, papers and pastels used and enjoyed seeing members' different styles come through in their paintings.

This month the AR Dept of Human Services exhibit will open. There is more information about that in the newsletter and about other exhibits that will be going on next year!

Stay cool and keep painting!

People, Places & Things!

Richard McKinley Workshop

The Arkansas Pastel Society will be sponsoring a 5-Day Richard McKinley Workshop in 2013. The dates are set for November 4 through November 8, 2013, and the workshop will be held in conjunction with the 2013 National Juried Exhibit. We are planning on having Richard jury and judge the National Exhibit. The Pastel Journal will be announcing the 2013 dates for workshops soon so I wanted to let the APS know in advance in case members want to plan on attending the workshop. Prices have not been finalized but the cost of the 5-day workshop will be around $500. Keep in mind that the average national workshop charge for a 2012 Richard McKinley workshop is $600. More specific information along with exact costs will be available in January. Deposits will be required at that time. Please let me know if you are interested in attending this workshop so that I can plan for the local attendees. Thanks.

Artist of the Month

Donna Langston won the drawing for the Artist of the Month. Her paintings will be on display at the Starving Artist Cafe in North Little Rock under the special "Pastel Society" area.

Shirley Anderson

Shirley will teach a three day workshop in Hot Springs Village, AR on September 25 through September 27, 2012. The workshop will focus on using underpaintings to make luminous pastel paintings. Contact Shirley (srandreson0930@sbcglobal.net) for more information.

Next Meeting

The next meeting will be a speaker who will be announced in a separate email. The organizers of the meeting also ask that each member bring one or two paintings to share.

Department of Human Services Show

The Pastel Society will have a show at the Arkansas Department of Human Services from September 18 – October 26. On Sept 18, Sister Maria will wait in the lobby of the building to accept artwork 10:30 -12:30. At 12:30 she will move all the artwork to the 2nd floor. The committee will hang artwork that afternoon. Arkansas Department of Human Services • 700 Main St. Little Rock (corner of Main and 7th)
If you have a painting that you can provide for this exhibit, and cannot come that day, you can hand deliver to her before Sept 18. Contact her to set up an appointment: liebeckdc@att.net

Suzann Waggoner

Suzann has artwork in the Small Works on Paper Retrospective Art Exhibit. These selected paintings will tour the state of Arkansas for two years. The work is entitled "She's Safe They Found Her This Morning." These paintings are all purchase award winners and in the permanent collection of International Paper.

"Redeveloping the Failed Painting" Workshop

Suzann Waggoner will be teaching this one day workshop on Saturday, November 3 at White Wagon Farm from 9:30am to 4:30pm. Cost of the workshop is just $25. For more information contact Suzann at suzanneben@windstream.net.
