

MARCH

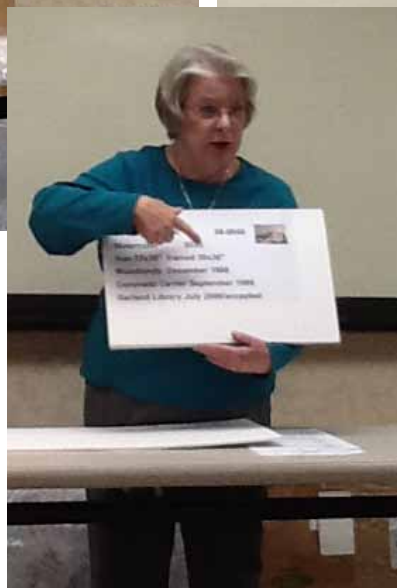

2013

On Tuesday, March 5th, the Arkansas Pastel Society hosted the first meeting of 2013 beginning with a short business meeting followed by an informative presentation by Marlene Gremillion.

Marlene discussed record keeping including tracking completed paintings and labeling. She also brought examples of packing and wrapping materials for shipping or delivering paintings to exhibits. Tom Herrin won the Artist of the Month honors for the Starving Artist. Don't forget the Members Only Exhibit coming up at Garvan Woodland Gardens. If you are unable to deliver your paintings on the specified day, bring them to the April meeting. See you there!

Painting Completed

By Marlene Gremillion

Before framing

1. Photograph
2. Give painting a number and write on the back of the actual painting
3. Make an index card or enter in excel inventory list
4. Be sure to keep up where the painting is located and any important history

After framing

1. Make a label (I use Avery sticky shipping labels) and place on back of framed piece
2. Title
3. Size
4. Price
5. Inventory number
6. Your Name
7. Contact information such as address, e-mail, phone, web site

Hauling Paintings

1. Keep upright
2. Wrap with bubble wrap with your name on wrap in marker BIG
3. Make a bubble wrap envelope with your name in marker BIG/ could make handles for this to make easier to haul

Shipping

1. Air float box
2. Cover glass with cardboard before wrapping
3. Wrap in bubble wrap and tape securely
4. Place in foam area of box (Air float has website that shows how to do this)
5. Put your name on all of the packing so it comes back with your painting
6. Make sure the box has your name on it
7. Always follow prospectus directions for shipping and return shipping if entering a show and shipping to them
